Aaron Levinoff | Klein Enterprises

By: Daily Record Staff October 23, 2017

Klein Enterprises, a Baltimore-based commercial and residential real estate development and management firm, has named Aaron Levinoff its new chief financial officer. Levinoff brings with him more than a decade of experience in the finance and banking industries.

As CFO, Levinoff's responsibilities will include overseeing the finance, tax and accounting functions for the core real estate activities and family office. Prior to joining Klein Enterprises, Levinoff served for 12 years as CFO of a Baltimore-based event driven hedge fund and two years as an investment banking associate in New York City.

Levinoff, originally from Toronto, has resided in Baltimore with his wife and four children since 2002. He received a Bachelors of Business Administration from the Schulich School of Business at York University and a Masters of Business Administration from Cornell University's Johnson School of Business. He also serves on the board of trustees of the Beth Tfiloh Dahan Community School and is licensed as a Chartered Public Accountant and Chartered Accountant in Ontario.
